Summary

I help brands grow organically and sustainably through the power of search. As an Search Engine Optimization Growth Specialist and Link Building Specialist, I blend creativity with data to turn visibility into revenue—mapping opportunities through keyword research, polishing on-page experiences, and building authority with smart outreach.

From technical tune-ups to content that answers real user intent, my approach to search engine optimization is simple: make it easier for the right people to find (and love) your brand. I'm obsessed with testing, learning, and compounding small wins into big outcomes—more qualified traffic, better rankings, and measurable growth.

Always curious. Always shipping. Always growing.

Crew Member (J-1 Summer Work & Travel)

June 2018 - September 2018 (4 months)

North Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, United States

Selected to participate in the U.S. Department of State's J-1 Summer Work and Travel Program, a cultural exchange initiative that allows full-time international university students to live and work in the United States during their summer break.

Worked as a Crew Member at KFC in North Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, handling food preparation, customer service, and point-of-sale transactions in a fast-paced restaurant environment. Maintained cleanliness and food-safety standards during high-volume summer tourist season, while collaborating with a team of both local and international staff. Beyond the role, the program offered firsthand exposure to American work culture, strengthened my professional English, and built my ability to adapt quickly to a new environment.
